

Top Five Reasons from 2022 to Support SSDP in 2023!

SSDP is the only Drug Policy organization with deep roots and current programming covering cannabis, psychedelics, and harm reduction at over 100 campuses across the country, creating true pathways toward national systemic change from the ground up. Help us continue this work — our action and victories — by making a recurring donation at ssdp.org/donate/sensible-society/

1. We took direct action at the front gates of the White House to demand President Biden fulfill his promise to issue pardons for all non-violent cannabis offenders.
 - a. We Made Good Trouble on the Front Steps of the White House
 - b. Coverage by Reason Magazine
 - c. Filtermag coverage

2. SSDP'rs mobilized for local drug decrim at municipalities across the country!
 - a. Cannabis decriminalization in the Deep South
 - b. Decrim ordinance in Athens, Georgia makes an ounce or less of cannabis a \$35 fine
 - c. Cannabis Decrim municipal ordinance passed in Denton Texas
 - d. SSDP in Ann Arbor Michigan launches decrim resolution campaign

3. We've organized Narcan administration training from coast to coast and developed partnerships to make drug checking kits more available.
 - a. Yale SSDP hosts narcan training on campus
 - b. University of Washington brings harm reduction to campus
 - c. SSDP partners with Dosestest to provide harm reduction tools for youth

4. We launched our first HBCU (Historically Black Colleges and Universities) ambassador program, creating 10 SSDP ambassadors located in 10 HBCU campuses across 6 states in the South!
 - a. Our first cohort
 - b. SMART and SSDP's dedicated HBCU outreach program website

5. We pushed back on the DEA scheduling of psychedelic research chemicals and held a statewide symposium on psychedelics in California!
 - a. SSDP Successfully Pushes Back on DEA Effort to Criminalize Psychedelic Research
 - b. Psychedelic symposium

This work would not have been possible without our Sensible Society members and those who support SSDP! Please consider making a donation today. If you have any questions please contact jason@ssdp.org!

